Notes

This document contains sample slides from our range of Recount Writing resources.

It is NOT a lesson!

The unit contains a Teacher Guidance document which supports teachers planning a unit of work using our resources. Only the class teacher knows the needs of their class, with this in mind, we have prepared a wide range of resources for each unit for teachers to choose to adapt and use with their class.

For Recount Writing, there are 13 editable PowerPoints which include the features of instruction writing and the different text types.

In addition, there is a range of activities to support teaching the relevant features; WAGOLLS are integrated into PowerPoints.

Planners and Steps to Success are available too.

Verb Tense Activity 2

Flat 202
 Black-Towers
 London
 12th July

Hi Benji!

I bet you've forgotten me already! We've been here 1 week - 1 whole week already - can you believe it?

Yesterday, I went to my new school - it is massive - loads of buildings, loads of people, loads of everything except the most important thing - no fields!!! Where on earth do they play football? I didn't even see a playground or anyone having a kickabout - boring!! They all wear uniforms - baggies and ties - total geekdom. Mum says I'll look lovely - I do not think so!! Defo going to hate it.

My bedroom is tiny and I can't fit all my stuff in so Mum made me put my PlayStation in the front room which is also tiny. Say I've not been online much but she watches everything I do. That's why I am writing to you - I know it's not what you would expect but needs must. Did you complete the latest mission? I really hate it here and I wish I was with you all. Do you think it's too soon to visit? Please, please ask your Dad if I can come and stay soon. I hate it here.

The flat is on the 12th floor and the lift is broken. Mum says it will help us keep fit - she's mad! Hate it! Hate it! There's nowhere to hang out and I've not met any kids - you'll always be my best mate. Actually, I really, really hate it here. I have a plan but I need your help. Ask your Dad if I can visit. I am going to tell Mum that your Dad has asked me to spend summer with you. I will persuade her but then when I am with you - I will get a job and stay with you. I ain't stopping in London. We will soon be together again! Reply soon - I might just leave anyhow - she won't notice.

Mates for evs
